RIVERVIEW TRAIL COMMITTEE

Daryl Parker and Linda Nudd were present as co-chairs to thank the Mayor and Council for their support of the project. The Committee plans to have a dedication ceremony on July 3rd at 5:00 p.m. People can meet at Ensign Corporation and walk or bike to the trail head for the ceremony. Refreshments will be served at Off Shore following the dedication. The Mayor and Council are invited to attend.

PARKS TO PEOPLE UPDATE

Daryl Parker informed the Council of the progress of the Parks to People master plan. Their mission is to enhance, promote, sustain and connect our region's cultural, natural and park assets.

APRAXIA WALK

Jennifer Smith was present to ask the Council’s permission to hold the 7th Annual Bellevue, Iowa Walk for Children with Apraxia of Speech. The walk will be on Saturday September 19, 2015.

Ernst moved with a second by Feuerbach to approve the 7th Annual Bellevue, Iowa Walk for Children with Apraxia of Speech at Felderman Park. Motion carried unanimously.

7TH STREET PROJECT

Administrator Herrig met with the property owners of the 7th Street Project. The sidewalk solution that would make the neighbors happy and would be the most cost effective would be to use the existing sidewalk on the east side of 7th Street from Park Street to Market Street. Then do a painted pedestrian way across 7th Street to the west side just south of the Matt Junk residence then proceeding to the south until a point the City can build a sidewalk south of the Tim Till driveway that would be behind the curb in the normal boulevard area.

MOVIE IN COLE PARK

The Bellevue Arts Council plans to show Despicable Me on June 12th starting at dusk in Cole Park on the tennis court.
