

June 17, 2013
Joint Session

The Bellevue City Council, Jackson County Board of Supervisors and Jackson County Conservation Board met jointly on June 17, 2013 at 6:30 P.M. in the lower level of the Bellevue Community Center. The rolls were called as follows:

BELLEVUE CITY COUNCIL

PRESENT: Councilmembers, Darla Lawson, Dan Blitgen, Allen Ernst, Gary Feuerbach, Tim Roth, Mayor Christopher J. Roling and City Administrator Loras Herrig

ABSENT: None

JACKSON COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

PRESENT: Supervisor Chair Jack Willey, Supervisors Larry "Buck" Koos and Steve Flynn, M. Joell Deppe and Frank Frieberg

ABSENT: None

JACKSON COUNTY CONSERVATION BOARD

PRESENT: Board Chair Anne Hawks, Boardmembers Chris Cornelius and Steve Flynn and Daryl Parker

ABSENT: Boardmembers Rick Small and Randy Bender

Also present were IIW Engineers Mark Jobgen and Rob Blok, Officer Ryan Kloft, Rhonda Cunningham, Tom Koranda, Adam Mueller, Bruce Droessler, Gene Hendricks, Linda Schleker, Robert Behrens, Chuck Owen, Lana Ballou, Darla Hingtgen, Jim & Deanna Glass, Chris Frank, Eric Tott, Jerry Walsh and Jon Klingman

WATER AND SEWER OPTIONS FOR SPRUCE CREEK CAMP GROUND

IIW Engineers Mark Jobgen and Rob Blok presented options for Spruce Creek Camp Ground for water and sewer service. Additional options were presented that could include the Droessler area.

County Sanitarian Frank Frieberg did a presentation on the conditions of the septic systems in the Droessler Subdivision.

The City Council, Board of Supervisors and County Conservation Commission agreed that the residents of the Droessler area will be invited to an informational meeting to be held possibly on a Saturday and a night convenient to the residents.

Supervisor Jack Willey said the County would send out letters of information on the meeting to the residents.

ADJOURNMENTS

As there was no further business to come before the Council and Boards they adjourned as follows:

BELLEVUE CITY COUNCIL

Roth moved with a second by Blitgen to adjourn at 7:58 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

JACKSON COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Koos moved with a second by Flynn to adjourn at 7:59 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

JACKSON COUNTY CONSERVATION BOARD

Cornelius moved with a second by Hawks to adjourn at 8:00 p.m. Motion carried unanimously.

City Clerk

Mayor